Gubernatorial Transition

Bill Leighty
Director, Government Performance Initiative
Virginia Commonwealth University

Former Chief of Staff Bill Leighty will guide participants through the most critical period to a governor's term of office – from election to governing. Gubernatorial transition presents a microcosm of decision making for an entire term in office, and the decisions made in the first critical days have lasting implications for the success of an administration. Bill will speak from his experience about the organization of the Office of the Governor and central staff entities, recruitment and selection of personnel for gubernatorial appointments, and other related topics. Filled with wonderful anecdotes, this lively presentation and discussion will both educate and entertain.

10:45 AM – 11:45 AM

Post-Election Wrap-Up

Robert Holsworth
Founder and President, Virginia Tomorrow

What post-election period would be complete without a political wrap-up with Dr. Bob Holsworth? Bob will look review the results of the 2009 election and look at the meaning of the election in light of the national picture. He will also examine the implications of the 2009 elections for future candidates both in the state and nationally. As always, Bob will bring his keen insight and wit to VEIAA and gladly answer questions that participants may have.
